

The Structure of the Income Tax Act (ITA)

Structure of the Income Tax Act

The Canadian Income Tax Act is divided into parts. Some parts are very long, while others contain only one section (but sometimes a very lengthy section). Most parts deal with specific issues.

There are four parts that apply to the ITA as a whole, and they are: Part XV (Administration and Enforcement); Part XVI (Tax Avoidance); Part XVI.1 (Transfer Pricing); and Part XVII (Interpretation)

The majority of the provisions are found in Part I. Part I is the only part of the ITA that is further grouped into Divisions and Subdivisions.
